ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 35 year old U.S. citizen born in Massachusetts. He has lived in Houston since 2004. He currently lives with a friend, and prior to that was in Harris County Jail. He has daily contact with his mother in Massachusetts. He is unaware of the location of his father who is homeless in the Houston area. He is single and has three children from prior relationships. He is in contact with the oldest child who lives in Massachusetts but not the younger two who live in Texas. He is behind on court-ordered child support payments. Defendant denies having a passport and last traveled abroad to Mexico for vacation in 1998.
2. Defendant has been unemployed for approximately 2 years but claims to work construction for cash for a friend. He previously worked as a pipefitter. He admits a history of using amphetamines. He has a history of depression
3. Defendant's criminal history includes 2 prior forgery convictions, a conviction for giving a false ID, and an arrest for possession of a controlled substance. He currently faces state charges for forgery of a financial instrument that may be related to the current federal charge.
4. Defendant is charged with possession of forged securities in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 531.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
